

Junction City Municipal Court

Traffic Deferred Prosecution Program

You may be eligible for the Traffic Deferment if:

1. You have had no other moving violation convictions during the last three years.
2. You have not participated in a traffic deferment program during the last five years.
3. You do not currently hold a commercial driver's license.
[per ORS 153.090 (7)]
4. Your violation did not involve a motor vehicle accident.

These are the conditions of the Traffic Deferment:

1. Enter a plea of no contest to the charge you have been cited for.
2. Complete the Deferred Prosecution Agreement/Order of Deferment form.
3. Pay the $100.00 court cost.
4. Attend and complete a court approved traffic safety course or 55-Alive program. There is an additional fee for the traffic course paid at the time of enrollment.
5. File the certificate of completion for the traffic safety course with the court prior to the end date of the traffic deferment program.
6. Receive no further traffic violation convictions during the four month deferment period.

If you successfully complete all of these conditions, your charge will be dismissed at the end of the four month period!
